

*Arizona Law Enforcement
Training Announcement*
CHANGE IN TRAINING DATES

The U.S. Attorney's Office, District of Arizona, is sponsoring the following Training:

An Introduction to Federal Criminal Process & Procedure: Bringing Your Case to Federal Court

Purpose: To introduce the process and procedural requirements of federal criminal case prosecution.

Who should Attend:

- New Investigators/Detectives having minimal experience with the U.S. Attorney's Office and who investigate federal crimes (with an emphasis on Indian country crimes, federal jurisdiction and the Major Crimes Act violations).
- Investigators/Detectives desiring a refresher course in federal criminal process and interaction with the U.S. Attorney's Office, U.S. Marshal Service, U.S. Pretrial Service and the federal courts.
- Tribal Prosecutors who may be involved in concurrent federal and tribal case prosecutions and who desire information on the federal criminal judicial process.

When: December 13-14, 2001 [Due to a conflict with a DOJ grantee training course, the dates of this training have been changed from November.]

IF YOU HAVE ALREADY REGISTERED FOR THE NOVEMBER DATES, THERE IS NO NEED TO REGISTER AGAIN.

Where: U.S. Attorney's Office ----- Telephone: (602) 514-7500
Two Renaissance Square, 40 N. Central, Suite 1200, Phoenix, Arizona 85004

*Note: Space is limited to 50 participants on a first come basis. The U.S. Attorney's Office will offer this course on a continuing basis.

Participants are responsible for hotel, travel and per diem cost (a continental breakfast will be served each day). Registration and training materials will be provided at no cost to the participants.

Questions: Please call Diane Humetewa or Debra Massey at (602) 514-7500.

[This course has been approved as to form for AZ POST continuing training credit.]